| 1 | The individual under supervisor has violated the special supervision condition which states 'You must refrain from the illegal possession and use of drugs, including prescription medication not prescribed in your name, and/or the use of alcohol, and must submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to ensure compliance. It is further ordered that you must submit to evaluation and treatment, on an outpatient or inpatient basis, as approved by the U.S. Probation Office. You must abide by the rules of any program and must remain in treatment until satisfactorily discharged by the Court. You must alert all medical professionals of any prior substance abuse history, including any prior history of prescription drug abuse. The U.S. Probation Office will supervise your compliance with this condition.' |

During a home visit on May 24, 2022, Elijah Abdullah submitted to a drug screen and the results were positive for marijuana via a multi-panel instant test cup. Abdullah verbally admitted using marijuana on May 22, 2022 and executed an Admittance of Drug Use form.

U.S. Probation Officer Action:

Elijah Abdullah was reminded that marijuana remains illegal in the federal system, encouraged to make better decisions, and refrain from further substance abuse in the future. He was also advised that the noncompliance would be reported to the Court. At this juncture, it is respectfully requested that no action be taken by the Court. If Your Honor approves, the undersigned officer will increase urine monitoring for illicit drug use detection, and keep the Court apprised of any additional acts of noncompliance.

Respectfully submitted,

SUSAN M. SMALLEY, Chief
U.S. Probation Officer
